DAILY GAZETTE.

The Fall of Vicksburg-Spirit of the London Press.

Our special correspondent from London, under date of July 20th, thus echoes the thought of loyal men this side the water: All had Vicksburg! Hail to Gen. Grant! Hail, doubly hail, to the gallant heroes who have gotten us the victory! The news of the fall of Vicksburg reached this city early on Sunday morning. It spread like wildfire among the loyal Americans, who went about congratulating each other and the stendfast and true friends who are scattered few and far between amid our malignant and lying traducers. The news struck the rebels and their sympathizers with consternation and dismay. They would not believe it: That Vicksburg had fallen, and Lee had been disastrously driven back! Why, it could not be true. Had not the Times and Telegraph over and over again demonstrated that neither of these things could happen? Had not all the Saturday papers (but the Observer) followed suit? Why, these small gospels had hardly been swallowed with morning coffee before the telegrape gave them the lie But it couldn't be true. The swells at the clubs pronounced it "pwepostewous," ---The "rebs" declared it "a d-d Lincoln lie, got up for the 4th of July." But the grimaces of the Monday mornings papers were the most ridiculous. The Times almost ignores the fall of Vicksburg, and says Lee's getting whipped in Pennsylvania " can not be regarded as a failure until it is known what purpose he went there for." The Post (unnisterial or gan) finds it impossible to form a just conception of the result in Pennsylvania .-Of the capture of Vicksburg we know nouncement of the fact!" The Telegraph frankly admits that "the darkest clouds hang over the prospects of the confederates. ' The Standard is led into the expression of a "fear that the fall of Vicksburg may be true," but predicts disaster to General Meade. That sheet, however, proclams that "no such incident as the loss of a bate Remember that Sutherland's is the Place tle or of a stronghold can affect the issue of the war I" Sage conclusion, isn't it? The Star and News, however, are exultant, and I doubt whether the American minister himself feels more real joy than Juneaville, Wisconsin take Reight Foster Cohden and other John Bright, Foster, Cobden and other truly "noble Britons," who stand out in bold rehef from their countrymen, and have dared to labor and to hope for the preservation of the Union.

The Star heralds the glad tidings thus: "With deep, devout and heartfelt joy, we publish to-day the news of victories that are the heralds of a happy peace. Seldom, if ever, has it been the lot of the journalist. to announce on the same sheet, two events of such transcendant importance as the fall of Vicksburg and the retriat of Lee. The glorious Fourth of July has indeed received a glorious celebration.

In tens of thousands of northern homes the birth-day of American freedom was heing kept with mingled hope and tear-with blended memories of joy and salness, of pride and humiliation. Throughout New England, and the populous middle states. and the vast northwest-in cities that date back from our own heroic seventeenth century, and in cities that have sprung up within the memory of living men upon the site of world old forests or on virgin prairies—around the Pilgrim's Rock, and in the gold-sown strands of the Pacific—cut-first who will always to the first the gold-sown strands of the Pacific—cut-first who will not the first to the first to the first to the great republic spake with trem. Wr. firm e, a recent of s, will reason much the Mr. firm e, a recent of s, will reason much the the gold-sown strands of the Pacific-cutulous lips, us beneath the shade of laurels att ntime NB-Incresque dententwinger of a administration on the twined with cypress, of their father's legacy of freedom, and of the deadly struggle in which their own brothers and sons were wrestling for the preservation of that glorious heritage-the Union, sacred alike to liberty and law. They knew not that on that very day the God of their country and of their sires-the God of justice and of mercy-had vouched to the commonwealth from my and the rough lives the derect in the son street christic as a month of feth distribution. a great deliverance. * * Let us be thankful, however, that even the legislative representation of England is not in the same humiliating position as some of the organs of English opinion. How thankful may the house of commons be that Mr. Roebuck was silenced in time! For, although he had never a chance of carrying his motion, what reputations might be not have dragged into the mire! It is had enough that even the glare of temporary ancresses should have address any of free and the state of the stat his motion, what reputations might be not successes should have seduced any of free woman born, into sympathy with the treason of slaveholders. How much worse that men of political mark among us should be Blood Paritying & Cathartic Medicine committed to the recognition of a rebellion as hopeless as it is infamous in object and fell to 5 per cent. discount, "The news is generally regarded as the beginning of the end of the rebellion. The only hope of the Times appears to be in what it terms 'the large and powerful miheads of the north and west, but winds up Jones of the OPRIS, a the left of the local of the north and west, but winds up its jeremiades by the almost humorous statement that 'it will be impossible to keep up interest in American affairs, and that TRUSSES FOR MES, mankind hereafter will avoid, as much TRUSSES FOR YOUTHS, TRUSSES FOR CHILDREN, as possible, the dull routine of American news!' This is the muling of a sickened soul-sick, because its hope to see our country broken up is fast lading forever away. The loyal Americans are tilking about celebrating the glad tidings from home with a dinner. They have already joined in a congratulatory letter to Gen. Grant and his heroic army."

"The 'confederate loan,' like the confederate army, was in full retreat also, and

DAILY GAZETTE.

The Fall of Vicksburg-Spirit of the London Press.

Our special correspondent from London. under date of July 20th, thus echoes the thought of loyal men this side the water: All hail Vicksburg! Hail to Gen. Grant! Hail, doubly hail, to the gallaut heroes who have gotten us the victory! The news of the fall of Vicksburg reached this city early on Sunday morning. It spread like wildlive among the loyal Americans, who went about congratulating each other and the steadfast and true friends who are scattered few and far between amid our malignant and lying traducers. The news struck the rebels and their sympathizers with consternation and dismay. They would not believe it: That Vicksburg had fallen, and Lee had been disastrously driven back! Why, it could not be true. Bad not the Times and Telegraph over and over again demonstrated that neither of these things could happen? Had not all the Saturday papers (but the Observer) followed suit? Why, these small gospels had hardly been swallowed with morning coffee before the telegrape gave them the iie. But it couldn't be true. The swells at the clubs pronounced it "pwepostewous."—The "rebs" declared it "a d—d Lincoln lie, got up for the 4th of July." But the grimaces of the Monday mornings papers vere the most ridiculous.

The Times almost ignores the fall of Vicksburg, and says Lee's getting whipped n Pennsylvania " can not be regarded as a failure until it is known what purpose he went there for." The Post (ministerial organ) finds it impossible to form a just couception of the result in Pennsylvania .-"Of the capture of Vicksburg we know nothing at present beyond the simple annonncement of the fact!"

The Telegraph frankly admits that " the larkest clouds hang over the prospects of the confederates."

The Standard is led into the expression

The Standard is led into the expression of a "fear that the fall of Vicksburg may be true," but predicts disaster to General Meade. That sheet, however, proclaims that "no such incident as the loss of a battle or of a stronghold can affect the issue of the war!" Sage conclusion, isn't it?

The Star and News, however, are exultant, and I doubt whether the American minister himself feels more real joy than John Bright, Foster, Cobden and other truly "nuble Britons," who stand out in hold relief from their country oold relief from their countrymen, and have dared to labor and to hope for the preservation of the Union.

The Star heralds the glad tidings thus: "With deep, devout and heartfelt joy, we publish to-day the news of victories that are the heralds of a happy peace. Seldom, if ever, has it been the lot of the journalis to announce on the same sheet, two events of such transcendant importance as the fall of Vicksburg and the retreat of Lec. The glorious Fourth of July has indeed received a glorious celebration.

In tens of thousands of northern homes the birth-day of American freedom was be ing kept with mingled hope and fear-with blended memories of joy and sadness, of pride and humiliation. Throughout New England, and the populous middle states, and the vast northwest-in cities that date back from our own heroic seventeenth contury, and in cities that have sprung up within the memory of living men upon the site of world oid forests or on virgin prairies-around the Pilgrim's Rock, and in the gold-sown strands of the Pacific-citimote the growth of the hair where haldness is, I zens of the great republic spake with tremhave the evidence of my own eyes." ulous lips, as beneath the shade of laurels twined with cypress, of their father's legaey of freedom, and of the deadly struggle in which their own brothers and sons were wrestling for the preservation of that glorious beritage—the Union, sacred alike to liberty and law. They knew not that on that very day the God of their country and of their sires-the God of justice and of mercy—had vouched to the commonwealth a great deliverance. * * * Let us be thankful, however, that even the legislative

USEFUL GOODS! representation of England is not in the same humiliating position as some of the organs of English opinion. How thankful may the house of commons be that Mr. Roebuck was silenced in time! For, although he had never a chance of carrying his motion, what reputations might be not have dragged into the mire! It is bad enough that even the glare of temporary successes should have seduced any of free woman born, into sympathy with the treason of slaveholders. How much worse that men of political mark among us should be committed to the recognition of a rebellion as hopeless as it is infamous in object and spirit."

"The Daily News also says: 'The 4th of July will henceforth be as memorable in the military annals of the American Union as it already is in the political history of "The confederate loan, like the confederate army, was in full retreat also, and fell to 5 per cent. discount.

"The news is generally regarded as the beginning of the end of the rebellion. The only hope of the Times appears to be in what it terms the large and powerful minority reviled and stigmatized as copperheads of the north and west,' but winds up its jeremiades by the almost humorous statement that 'it will be impossible to keep up interest in American affairs, and that 'mankind' beceafter 'will avoid, as much as possible, the dull routine of American news! This is the muling of a sickened soul-sick, because its hope to see our country broken up is fast fading forever away. The loyal Americans are talking shout celebrating the glad tidings from home with a dinner. They have already

OVER THE POST OFFICE.

THERE is nothing so much sought for by the public as a practical Sowing Machine, one that is Simple, Strong & Reliable. One that will run for years without the annoyance of being out of repair; one that is noiseless and swift in motion; also that makes the stitch as you want it, alike on both sides of the labric; such are the machines of the FLORENCE SEWING MACHINE

Who take observe in placing their Machines before the public, and unhestatingly say they are the best in the world, and quadry and publicly challenge machines of any and all manufactures to do as large or range of work as can easily be done on one of these muchines. They make FOUR DIFFERENT STITCHES, and have all the advantage of a reversible facel motion, which corries the work either way, which, together with making all the four statches, can be done whilst the machine is in motion; the saving of time in stapping to change the length of stitch, is obvisted by this reachine. Am garrespondence regarding our Machines will be promptly answered. Enclose a Letter Stamp and we will send circular and sample of work by return mail.

"The Constitution as it Is."

Our readers have heard this phrase continually on the lips of the copperhead talkers and orators, and seen it in their newspapers, for the last two years. The American people regard their old constitution almost with idolatry. It was the work of revolutionary patriots, and possesses a sa- i It has been sanctified by time and experience, and it is not strange that the people should look upon it with reverence. It is on this account, and not because they have any regard for it, that the demagogues demand for the "Constitution as it is."

the champions and defenders of that in- ing been sont for, the chains and shackles strument, even though it is not in danger of change or overthrow from those whom they oppose. We, however, have distrusted their sincerity, because they have been uniformly the friends and apologists of the robels, who have not only taken up arms and violated this very constitution, but have adopted and put in operation another, which is designed to overthrow the old time-honored instrument. With what consistency then, can these friends of the rebels insist that they desire the preservation of the "Constitution as it is?" If they should say that they wish for the adoption of the constitution of the "confederate still looked upon the Colonel as their delivstates," they would be more in harmony erer after all. The scene, he says, he shall

But we have new evidence that they do not wish for the preservation of the present constitution "as it is." At their recent state convention in Wiscousin the copperhead democrats resolved that if there should be a general manifestation on the part of the seceded states to return to their allegiance to the Union, it would be the duty of the administration to encourage the holding of a "constitutional convention" to restore peace. Now, why a "constitutional convention" for that purpose? We answer, they mean to change the present constitution to suit the rebels, to give them new guarantees for slavery, to restore the slaves made free by the emancipation proclamation, and give them what they call their "rights" in the territories.

Under the guise of friends of the "constitution as it is " they design a radical change in that instrument for! the benefit of traitors and slaveholders. We shall oppose every movement of that kind. There is no necessity for a constitutional convention to restore peace. The present consti- and enlisting sixteen able-bosied men in tution is sufficient for that. Let the rebels lay down their arms and submit to "the constitution as it is," and there will be peace without a convention. We think the "Un. ion army" is a convention suitable and sufficient for all the purposes of enforcing a peace. It is now in session in the rebel states, and is especially attending to Charleston about this time, where peace was first violated, and where we hope to see the "constitution as it is" amply vindicated within a few weeks, at furthest.

The prospect for a very large tobacco erop in Kentucky and Indiana is most encouraging. Nearly every farmer in Southern and Western Kentucky has more or less ground under cultivation in this great | political abolitionist who will go as his subtaple, while in Indiana the area of ground d in it is at least one-half greater previous season.

The Siege of Charleston.

The correspondent of the Baltimore American writing from Port Royal, under date of July 31st, says:

"It is the general impression on all hands here that the rebels have evacuated all tho casemates of Sumter, and intend to depend on her parapet guns entirely in the approaching assault. It is even said that her entire casemates are filled with sand-bags, and that all her best guns have been crowded to the parapets. If this is so it indicates that even the unsuccessful assault of April last must have been so terrible that there is an unwillingness to risk the fate of the fort to another square assault from the

As to the full of Sumter soon after the fall of Wagner, no one seems to have the least doubt. Fort Wagner which was passed by in silence by Admiral Dapont, is undoubtedly the key to Charleston, as evinced by the indomitable defense made by the enemy, with such terrible loss. There probably never was a fortification besieged with such frightful sacrifice of life to the besiegers as has been the case at Fort Wagner, and from the preparations making, there is no doubt that bloodier times are yet in store for them.

The results of the siege, so far as our iron clads are concerned, are emphatically satisfactory. The Ironsides' walls of solid iron have proved impenetrable, though she loes not go into such close range as the monitors, but still she has only so far received numerous scars of war which have beautified rather than disfigured her appearance, or lessened her efficiency. The monitors go in and come out, and the fight daily continues with the report nobody was hurt," so far as the iron-clads were concerned. Like all sieges, it is a work of time, and t has been undertaken by Gen. Gillmore and Admiral Dahlgren with no anticipation of progressing with any great rapidity. The defenses of Charleston, both by land the first attack by Admiral Dupont, which did nothing but demonstrate their weak points, and enabled them to strengthen them. All the works on the lower end of Morris Island, which have been taken by Gen. Gillmore, were not then erected, and the paranet guns of Sumter were not rogarded by the enemy as of any great value. The guns of the Keokuk were also then in our possession. From the New York Evening Pest, Aug. 1.

l Relic of Barbarism -- Cleaning Out of a Baltimore Slave Pen. The release of the slaves of the rebel

General Stuart from the slave pen in Pratt street, in this city, was attended by some interesting incidents. Col. Birney having applied for authority to visit the place and confiscate Stuart's " preperty," an order to that effect arrived yesterday, and in the afternoon the colonel proceeded to the prison, showed his order, entered, and locking the doors behind him, entered the court yard first, and then visited the cells. In this place sixty persons were confined, some of them having been there over three years. To be imprisoned there, without ever being allowed to visit the outer world, to forget almost what trees and flowers and green fields were, to be deprived even of the cool breezes of heaven, was bad enough; but there was worse than this. The ball, the chain, the shackles were

Their joy found vent, with the men in prayers and ejaculations of praise, with the women, in teurs and embraces of each other. Finally, the Colonel told them they must get ready to go out. Then they fairly flew their cells for their bags and bundles. And—the Colonel told it with a smile—even n this suprome moment, womanly vanity (shall we so call a laudable self-respect?) showed itself. He could see them smooth ing their hair, putting on little articles of finery, and otherwise "prettying up" before their bits of looking glass. It was not many minutes, however, before they all came down, and were marched out, men, women and children, into the free -to them icubly free—air.

They were taken to the recruiting office in Camden street, and here another most affecting scene took place. The news of the opening of the prison spread like wildfire, and the office and pavement in front were crowded with colored people, many of whom now met friends and relatives for the first time for three years. Well, I must not make my letter too long. Sulfice it that joy reigned supreme, and when the colonel said, "now what is to be done with these people for to night?" the most generous hospitality was liberally tendered .-After accoung them thus all provided for, the service, the colonel returned to camp feeling that the blessing of Heaven would be upon the work he had that day done. Gov. Seymour, under date of Albany, ing. 3d, writes to the president with re spect to the draft in New York and Brooklyn. He condemns the course of the provost marshal commencing the draft without consultation with the city or state officers, at a time when the militia were ab sent at the sent of war, and while there were not even soldiers enough to man the fortifications in the harbor. The governor complains of the unfairness in the enroll ment, and thinks in this lottery for human ife, as he terms it, there should be strict impartiality. In several districts the draft has been effected with justice, and conscripts have accepted their fate without a murmur, and sometimes joyfully.

In the districts of New York, however, with population much less, the number to be drafted is in some cases double that o the former. The attack on curolling officers, which subsequently grew into the most destructive riot known in the history of the country he pronounces unjustifiable, Speaking further of riots in New York he says: Disregard for law and disrespect for judicial tribunals produced their natural results of robbery and arson accompanied by murderous outrages on a helpless race, and for a time the very existence of the commercial metropolis of our country was threatened. It is gratifying that citi zens of New York were able, without material aid from the state or nation, to put down this dangerous insurrection. For a ime the nation had not means to protect its own arsenals and navy yard, one thousand men would have seized them all, and and then used the armaments for the destruction of the shipping and the city itself, for duty. "The Constitution as it Is."

Our readers have heard this phrase continually on the lips of the copperhead talkers and orators, and seen it in their newspapers, for the last two years. The American people regard their old constitution almost with idolatry. It was the work of revolutionary patriots, and possesses a sacredness on that account. Under it this country has prospered as no other nation has prospered in ancient or modern times. It has been sanctified by time and experience, and it is not strange that the people should look upon it with reverence. It is on this account, and not because they have any regard for it, that the demagogues who oppose the war for the defence of this constitution, have reiterated so often their demand for the "Constitution as it is."

They think it] popular to appear to be the champions and defenders of that instrument, even though it is not in danger were speedily removed. of change or overthrow from those whom the old man he lifted up his eyes and hands arms. The next confederate congress will they oppose. We, however, have distrusted and oxclaimed, "Thank God!" The ex- put in the ranks all men able to do military their sincerity, because they have been uniformly the friends and apologists of the robels, who have not only taken up arms robels, who have not only taken up arms they could not believe it at first, but when and violated this very constitution, but assured again and again that it was 20, a have adopted and put in operation another, simultaneous shout of gladuess went up, which is designed to overthrow the old which must have made the angels rejoice, time-honored instrument. With what consistency then, can these friends of the rebels insist that they desire the preservation of the "Constitution as it is?" If they should say that they wish for the adoption of the constitution of the "confederate states," they would be more in harmony erer after all. The scene, he says, be shall with their acts.

But we have new evidence that they do not wish for the preservation of the present constitution "as it is." At their recent state convention in Wisconsin the copperhend democrats resolved that if there should be a general manifestation on the part of the seceded states to return to their allegiance to the Union, it would be the duty of the administration to encourage the holding of a "constitutional convention" to restore peace. Now, why a "constitutional convention " for that purpose? We answer, they mean to change the present doubly free-air. constitution to suit the rebels, to give them new guarantees for slavery, to restore the slaves made free by the emancipation proclamation, and give them what they call their "rights" in the territories.

Under the guise of friends of the "constitution as it is" they design a radical change in that instrument for the benefit of traitors and slaveholders. We shall oppose every movement of that kind. There is no necessity for a constitutional convention to restore peace. The present constitution is sufficient for that. Let the rebels lay down their arms and submit to "the constitution as it is," and there will be peace without a convention. We think the "Un ion army" is a convention suitable and sufficient for all the purposes of enforcing a peace. It is now in session in the rebel states, and is especially attending to Charleston about this time, where peace was first violated, and where we hope to see the "constitution as it is" amply vindicated within a few weeks, at furthest.

The prospect for a very large tobacco erop in Kentucky and Indiana is most encouraging. Nearly every farmer in South ern and Western Kentucky has more or less ground under cultivation in this great taple, while in Indiana the area of ground d in it is at least one-half greater r previous season.

The Stere of Charleston.

The correspondent of the Baltimore American writing from Port Royal, under date of July 31st, says:

"It is the general impression on all hands here that the rebels have evacuated all the casemates of Sumter, and intend to depend on her parapet guns entirely in the approaching assault. It is even said that her otire casemates are filled with sand-bugs and that all her best guns have been crowded to the parapets. If this is so it indicates that even the unsuccessful assault of there is an unwillingness to risk the fate of the fort to another square assault from the Monitors.

As to the fall of Sumter soon after the proceeds to Cincinnati. fall of Wagner, no one seems to have the least doubt. Fort Wagner which was passed by in silence by Admiral Dupont, is undoubtedly the ker to Charleston, as evinced by the indomitable defense made by the onemy, with such terrible less. There probably never was a fortification besigged with such frightful sacrifice of life to the besiegers as has been the case at Fort Wagner and from the preparations making, there is no doubt that bloodier times are yet in store for them.

The results of the siege, so far as our iron clads are concerned, are emphatically satisfactory. The Ironsides' walls of solid iron have proved impenetrable, though she does not go into such close range as the monitors, but still she has only so far received numerous scars of war which have beautified rather than disfigured her apnearance, or lessened her efficiency.

The monitors go in and come out, and nobody was hurt," so far as the iron-clads were concerned.

Like all sieges, it is a work of time, and it has been undertaken by Gan. Gillmore tion of progressing with any great rapidity. The defenses of Charleston, both by land the first attack by Admiral Dupont, which did nothing but demonstrate their weak points, and enabled them to strengthen them. All the works on the lower end of Morris Island, which have been taken by Gen. Gillmore, were not then erected, and the parapet guns of Samter were not regarded by the enemy as of any great value. The gans of the Kookuk were also then in our possession.

From the New York Evening Post, Aug. 1. A Relic of Barbarism -- Cleaning Out of a Baltimore Stave Pen.

The release of the slaves of the rebel General Stuart from the slave pen in Pratt street, in this city, was attended by some interesting incidents. Col. Birney having applied for authority to visit the place and confiscate Stuart's "preperty," an order to that effect arrived yesterday, and in the afternoon the colonel proceeded to the prison, showed his order, entered, and locking the doors behind him, entered the court yard first, and then visited the cells. In this place sixty persons were confined, some of them having been there over three years. To be imprisoned there, without ever being allowed to visit the outer world, to forget almost what trees and flowers and green fields were, to be deprived even of the cool breezes of heaven, was bad enough; but there was worse than this.

The ball, the chain, the shackles were not wanting to make the lives of these poor creatures more miserable. Sixteen men were bound together with shackles at the failure, Davis should be responsible. ankles, others were chained two by two, and one old man had his lefe leg fastened seems they have been kept there by their should not be destroyed. masters to await either peace and "the Union as it was," or a good chance for shipment to the south. It was not many minutes, however, before they all came down, and were marched out, men, women and children, into the frec-to them

They were taken to the recruiting office in Camden street, and here another most affecting scene took place. The news of the opening of the prison spread like wild fire, and the office and pavement in front vere crowded with colored people, many of whom now met friends and relatives for the first time for three years. Well, I must not make my letter too long. Suffice it, that joy reigned supreme, and when the colouel said, "now what is to be done with these people for to-night?" the most gengrous hospitality was liberally tendered .-After seeing them thus all provided for, and enlisting sixteen able-boried men in the service, the colonel returned to camp, feeling that the biessing of Heaven would be upon the work he had that day done. In the evening one of the lighterants, talking with the new freedmen, asked them if they knew the person who liberated them. No," answered one, "we don't know him but we know that God sent him." "Yes, answered the rest, "God sent him-God sent him!"

Thus, you see, "the hand-breadth cloud the sages feared" is spreading. The colonel hopes soon to openevery slave pen in Baltimore, and through God's grace and the strong arm of the government, they shall never be used as such again.

OFFER TAKEN.-The Lockport Union of Wednesday, contains the following: "One democrat, who was drafted, John S. Beattie, offers $1,000 to any well known political abolitionist who will go as his substitute.' To which the Lockport Journal replies: "If Mr. Joha S. Beattie, or his friend, the editor of the Union, will call at our office, we will give him the name of a radical republican, well and long known as such. The most reliable demogratic reference can be given. If Mr. Beattie is a little short, perhaps a lower figure may ba considered. The man offering to go is 29 pears of age, sound wind and limb, war-replied to pass muster."

Great satisfaction is apparent among Union people that Gen. John A. Logan was to succeed Gen. S. A. Hurlbut in command of the 6th army corps. They think no better choice could have been made. Various reports, somewhat conflicting in character, reach here from the army below Memphis. Furlouging of soldiers continues without visible abatement. [Reported Exclusively for the Daily Gazetto.] MORNING DISPATCHES.

Madison, Wis., Aug. 10. Gov. Salomon publishes in Saturday evening's Journal the reply of the provest marshal general to his letter concerning volunteering in New Jersey. Volunteering is said to be allowed there because the preparations for draft are not completed, nence the same privilege is allowed in Wisconsin till the draft is ordered, and al volunteers for old regiments or for heavy publishes, the manner of giving credit for volunteers heretofore enlisted. By this it seems necessary for each town claiming a surplus over former quotas, to prepare lists of the names of enlisted men to be presented to the provest marshal, and compared with the muster rolls at Washington. The governor advises the preparation of such lists as soon as possible.

of Gen. Pope for $5,000 was found on his person. The Tribune's Washington dispatch says the war with England sensation news, latey started, has no foundation in truth. The Herald's Washington dispatches contain a long dispatch to the effect that Mr. Clay, minister at St. Petersburg, has entered into a treaty with Russia on behalf of the United States, assuring Russia that n the event of war being declared against her on the Polish question, the United States would declare war against France and England. Washington, Aug. 9. Gov. Seymour, under date of Albany, Ang. 3d, writes to the president with respect to the draft in New York and Brooklon. He condemns the course of the provost marshal commencing the draft without consultation with the city or state officers, at a time when the militia were absent at the sent of war, and while there were not even soldiers enough to man the factifications in the barbor. The governor complains of the unfairness in the enrollment, and thinks in this lottery for human ife, as he terms it, there should be strict impartiality. In several districts the draft has been effected with justice, and conscripts have accepted their fate without a mormur, and sometimes joyfully. In the districts of New York, however. he drafted is in some cases double that of the former. The attack on enrolling officers, which subsequently grew into the most destructive riot known in the history of the country he pronounces unjustifiable. Speaking further of riots in New York he says: Disregard for law and disrespect for judicial tribunals produced their natural results of robbery and arson accompanied by murderous outrages on a helpless race, and for a time the very existence of the commercial metropolis of our country was threatened. It is gratifying that citiin this supreme moment, womanly vanity that similar orders will be given in respect zens of New York were able, without ma(shall we so call a laudable self-respect?) to all other prisoners, white or black, that to all other prisoners, white or black, that terial aid from the state or nation, to put down this dangerous insurrection. Russia and Poland.

The three "great powers" which assume to direct the political affairs of Europe as well as America, (France, Eugland and Austria,) have met with a slight rebuff in the case of Russia and Poland. They submitted to the contending parties six propositions for the settlement of their difficulty. Both Russia and Poland have rejected all the points. Poland insists upon absolute independence, while Russia is willing to grant an amnesty after the subjugation of the rebellious province.

The three powers are considering "their next proposition," while in the meantime the successes of the Union armies in this country have caused the greatest anxiety on the part of the three illutrious peace makers. They thought Russia and the United States were badly crippled in pow; er, and they were to be the rulers of the world, but a sudden change has come over the aspect of affairs. We do not credit the report that a treaty of the kind mentioned in our despatches, to day, has been entered into between Minister Clay and the Emperor of Russia, but that there will be a treaty of alliance between Russia and the United States in case of a general war we do not doubt.

Rebel Mercy.

[From the N. Y. Tritunu.] East Tennessee-a region about equal in population to New Hampshire or Vermont-having few slaves and no aristoracy, presented a determined and unyielding esistance to the madness of secession. Even after the battle of Bull Run, it gave 32.923 for the Union, to 14,768 for secees sion-18,155 for the Union. Yet it was that unquenchable loyal region that has been dragooned into subjection to treason by such measures as the following:

WAR DEPARTMENT, 1 RICHMOND, Nov. 25-1861. Sin: Your report of the 20th inst. is received, and I now proceed to give you the desired instructions in relation to prisoners taken by you among the traitors of East Tennessee.

First-All such as can be identified in having been engaged in bridge burning, are to be tried summarily by drum head court-martial, and, if found guilty, executed on the spot by hanging in the vicinity of the burnt bridges.

All such as have not been so engaged are to be treated as prisoners of war, and sent with an armed guard to Tuscaloosa, Ala., there to be kept imprisoned at the depot selected by the government for prisoners of WAT.

Whenever you can discover that arms are concentrated by these traitors, you will send out detachments, search for and seize the arms. In no case is one of the men known to have taken up arms against the government to be released on any pledge or oath of allegiance. The time for such measures is past. They are to be held as prisoners of war, and held in jail till the end of the war. Such as come in voluntarily, take the oath of allegiance, surrender their arms, are alone to be treated with leniency.

Your vigilant execution of these orders is earnestly urged by the government. Your obedient servant, METAL-TIPPED SHOPS.—Shoes are an imnortant item in the expense of clothing children, as every parent will understand They invariably wear out their shoes at the toe first, and not unfrequently before the other parts are a quarter worn. We believe all the shoe dealers keep them.

was crowded last evening to hear the Rov. Mr. Rogers detail the situation of the contrabands in the southwest, and advocate their claims to benevolent and Christian sympathy. We are not particularly partial to long speeches or long sermons, but last night we listened very pleasantly to an hour and a hatf's talk. Mr. Rogers is an earnest, enthusiastic worker in the cause in which he is engaged, and brings to his work the result of a large experience acquired under very favorable and peculiar circumstances. His history of the lirst contraband camp at Corinth, and some of the incidents connected with it, were deeply interesting, while his statement of the charactor and conduct of the oppressed men who sought its refuge was hopeful of their future progress and advancement. A liberal collection was taken up, and a committee volunteered to canvass the city for clothing for their use. Mr. Rogers' labors must, almost necessarily, result in great pledge was given the patriotic men who enlisted to brave the dangers of the camp and battle-field, that their families should be provided for, and the promise there made should be faithfully fulfilled on our part. It is true that the state has made provision for the families of volunteers, but in some instances it may be insufficient and in other cases some delay may occur in getting the state money. There is some complaint being made, and as I conceive that the duties of the committee are to see to this matter, I would suggest that it meet and organize and make such arrangement as may be deeined advisable to meet individual cases of suffering if un7 exist. OFFICE OF JAY COOKE, General Subscription Agent

FOR 5-20 LOAN, No. 114 South Third St., Philadelphia.

NATIONAL BANKING ASSOCIATIONS, COMMUNITIES, and CAPITALISTS now contemplating the formation of National Banking Associations, under Secretary Chase's Bill, passed at the last session of Congress, are reminded that the 5-20 Loan, now for a limited period to be obtained at pur, may after the first of August be withdrawn from the procedure. The improved condition of Military affairs and the Castors constant succession of Victories, together with the completion of the preparations for the issue of the Four Hundred Millions of Logal Tender interest bearing notes, or Treismy Notes, renders the being of fur-ther long or permanent Loans at present, exceedingly doubtiul. The Loans of the Government, maturing in 1951, are now selling at six per cent. pre mining. These would advance to 10 or 15 per cent, pre-mining if the Secretary of the Treesury should discon-tione the sales of the 5 20%; and the 20% themselves would soon command a hard-some premium, should the demand for Cloveri ment Loans, as the basis for bankdemont for Government Leans, as the bisis for bank-ing or for investment, he at all active. It is possible that the Ferrelary of the Treasury may receive sub-reciptions to the 5 20 Loan for a lenger period,—should there be any delay in the preparation of the notes for the supplying of the Treasury with finds, or should be in view of the manifest benefits to the country from the present popular mode of distributing the cancer the nation anking the people—of to encourage the forms tion of the New Panks - decide it to be wise and judi-close to further extend the time of subscriptions to the 5 20's at par. His views and intentions on the subject of course, are anknown: therefore, the sufest and wis est conse is to subscribe at once, whilst a six per cent bond, with the interest and principal psyable in GOLD can be bedat our can be near at pur It will afford me pleasure to furnish full information in regard to the form ation of the Nation d Banks, and the necessity steps to be taken. Printed documents relative thereto will be furnished, at Washington, on relative thereto will be maintenen, as maximizen con-application to Hon. Hugh McCulleugh, Compitalist of the Currency, or by the undersa, ned.

THE CONTRABANDS .- The Baptist church

was crowded last evening to hear the Rov. Mr. Rogers detail the situation of the contrabands in the southwest, and advocate their claims to benevolent and Christian sympathy. We are not particularly partial to long speeches or long sermons, but last night we listened very pleasantly to an hour and a haif's talk. Mr. Rogers is an earnest, enthusiastic worker in the cause in which he is engaged, and brings to his work the result of a large experience acquired under very favorable and peculiar circumstances. His history of the first coutraband camp at Corinth, and some of the incidents connected with it, were deeply interesting, while his statement of the character and conduct of the oppressed men who sought its refuge was hopeful of their future progress and advancement. A liberal collection was taken up, and a committee volunteered to canvass the city for clothing for their use. Mr. Rogers' labors must, almost necessarily, result in great

When this committee was appointed a pledge was given the patriotic men who enlisted to brave the dangers of the camp and battle-field, that their families should be provided for, and the promise there made should be faithfully fulfilled on our part. It is true that the state has made provision for the families of volunteers, but in some instances it may be insufficient and in other cases some delay may occur in getting the state money. There is some complaint being made, and as I conceive that the duties of the committee are to see to this matter, I would suggest that it meet and organize and make such arrangement as may be-decided advisable to nicet individual cases of suffering if any exist. I deem it a duty they owe to the soldiers and to the loyal people of the city, and as such kindly call the committee's attention to the mat-

The improved condition of Military affairs and the constant succession of Victories, together with the completion of the preparations for the issue of the Foer Hundred Military affairs. Toucher interest bearing notes, or Treasury Notes, renders the issuing of interest tour tong or purmanent Loans at present, exceedingly doubtful.

The Loans of the Government,

The Loans of the Government, matering in 1881, are now selling at six per cent, premium. These would advance to 10 or 15 per cent, premium. If the Secretary of the Treasury should discontinue the sales of the 5-20%; and the 5-20% themselves would sconcommand a handsome premium, should the demand for Government Loans, as the basis for banking or for investment, be at all notive. It is possible that the Secretary of the Treasury may receive subscriptions to the 5-20 Loan for a longer period,—should there be any dolay in the preparation of the notes for the supplying of the Treasury will funds, or should be in view of the manifest benefits to the country from the present popular mode of distributing the rease of the nation among the people—or to succerage the formation of the New Fanks—decade it to be wise and judicious to include the west and second the time of subscriptions to the 5-20% at par. We have made the above Reduction in Prices with the two-fold view of benefiting the public and ourselves. The public have been swindled by spurious muchines made in initiation of ours. The metal is them, from the tron consting to the smallest piece, is of poor quality. Their makers have not the means to detheir work well. They are hid may in secret piaces, where it would be impossible to have at their command the proper mechanical applances. It is only by doing a great husiness; and having extensive manufacturing establish monts, that good machines can be made at moderate prices. The best designed machines, Badiy Made, are always liable to get out of order, and are sure to cost considerable trouble and money to keep them in repair. The qualities to be looked for in a machine arc: certainty of correct action at all rates of speed, implicity of contraction, great durability and regulating of operation, with the least labor. Machines to combine these essential qualities, must be under of the best medical and sixiated to perfection. We have the ways and means, on a grand scale, to do this.

The purchasers of machines, whose daily broad it may concern, will find that those having the above qualities must only work well at regulate well as slow rates of speed, but Latt long in the finest possible working order. Our machines, as made by us, will care work money with less labor than any others, whether in mittathou of ours or not. In fact, they are cheaper than any other machines as a gift. Every description of work in this line can be exemited in a style superior to that ever before attempted in this part of Wisconsin and equal to that done at any stablishment, east or west.
